 Ionic Hall, Masonic Temple,
 Boston, Mass.
 Wednesday, January 19, 1955

A Stated Conclave of Boston Commandery was opened at 5:30 P.M. by Eminent Sir John Reid, assisted by a full staff of officers. We were happy to welcome back Sir Knight Edward L. Kerr, our Captain General.

Records

The records of our Stated Conclave of December 15, 1954, were read and approved.

Balloting

The Commandery was notified that reports of Investigating Committees on the petitions of Companions Robert S. Andrews, Eugene C. Dasch, Jr., James I. F. Matthew, Richard Strauss, William C. Sutherland, and Elmer V. Telfer, whose names appeared on the notice, and Companion Warren H. McClellan, whose petition was received by special dispensation from Grand Commandery, were full and favorable. These seven petitioners were elected to receive the Orders in Boston Commandery.

Deaths

The following deaths were announced by our Commander and the customary tribute was paid to their memory.

Work

As there was no further business, a Council of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross was opened for the reception of candidates, after which a recess was declared for dinner.

Dinner

The Sir Knights repaired to the banquet hall where they were joined by 61 members and candidates from DeMolay Commandery. After dinner and the usual humorous story by Right Eminent Sir Robert G. Wilson, Jr., the Sir Knights enjoyed a program of tap dancing.

Reconvened

Council of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross reconvened and the Order was conferred by our dramatic Degree Team, under the direction of Eminent Sir James S.W. Rogers as Sovereign Master, Reverend Sir Charles E. Pedersen as Grand High Priest and Sir Knight E. Wayne Donaldson, portrayed the character of Zerubabel in his usual imitable manner.

The following thirteen Companions from Boston Commandery: Elmer E. Barber, Henry E. Castellon, Frederick S. Chapman, Ronald Cushing, Leo Donabadian, Herbert P.M. Rhodes, Warren H. McClellan, Charles W. Skinner, Wilbur B. Skinner, William C. Sutherland, Elmer V. Telfer, Harry C. Tragakis and James Tragakis, and one candidate from Gethsemane Commandery, Companion Nicholas F. Emanuel, and twenty-nine candidates from DeMolay Commandery were created Companions of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross.

Knights of Malta

A Priory of Knights of Malta was opened under the direction of Sir Knight Charles D. Harrington, who admitted the thirteen Companions, previously enumerated, as Knights of Malta. Commandery was then closed with prayer and the Sir Knights were dismissed at 10:10 P.M.

Eight of these candidates will also attend DeMolay Commandery on Wednesday, January 26, 1955, and have the pleasure of witnessing the Order of Malta in full form by DeMolay Commandery.

A Stated Conclave of Boston Commandery was opened at 4:00 P.M. by Eminent Sir John Reid, assisted by a full staff of officers, with the exception of our Captain General Sir Knight Edward L. Kerr.

Records

It was unanimously voted to postpone the reading of our records of the Stated Conclave Wednesday, January 19, 1955.

Balloting

The Commandery was notified that reports of investigating committees on the petitions of Louis J. Callas, Frederic Koury, Roger H. Potter, Jr., Charles D. Schofield, Sarkis Stepanian, George A. Van Tassel and John G. Wallwork were full and favorable, and that release of jurisdiction had been secured from Sir Galaghad Commandery on Companions Koury and Wallwork. These seven petitioners were elected to receive the Orders in Boston Commandery.

Deaths

The following deaths were announced by our Commander and the customary tribute was paid to their memory:

Work

As there was no business to come before the Commandery, Em. Sir Reid, after ascertaining the following Sir Knights of Malta were in waiting,

Robert S. Andrews	Ronald Cushing	Herbert P.M. Rhodes
Elmer E. Barber	Leon Donabadian	Charles W. Skinner
Michael Boodakian	Albert S. Hovannesian	Wilbur B. Skinner
Henry E. Castellon	Levon Maserian	Richard Strauss
Frederick S. Chapman	Warren H. McClellan	William C. Sutherland
and Elmer V. Telfer

proceeded to confer the Order of the Temple. Knights of Malta Sir Harry C. Tragakis and James Tragakis were dubbed and created Knights of the Temple at the Stated Conclave of DeMolay Commandery, Wednesday, February 23, 1955. Our Commander, Em. Sir John Reid, was extended the courtesy of receiving these Knights at the Triangle. Work was carried along on the Order of the Temple until the conclusion of the Fourth Libation.

Dinner

A recess was taken at 6:25 P.M. for dinner and the Sir Knights repaired to the banquet hall for a Seiler dinner. Following dinner, Em. Sir Reid introduced our distinguished guests and the McStay Class of candidates. Em. Sir McStay spoke briefly, thanking the Sir Knights for the splendid turn-out at the Annual Meeting of Aleppo Temple when he was installed as Illustrious Potentate of Aleppo Temple, and for the beautiful television set that was presented to him at that time.

Entertainment

The Sir Knights then enjoyed entertainment by the Wollaston Glee Club, under the direction of Ted Kittredge and Lewis B. Carlson.

Reconvened

Commandery then reconvened and the Order of the Temple was concluded on the 16 candidates, previously enumerated. As the class had been named in honor of our Past Commander Herman C. McStay, Em. Sir McStay was extended the honor of dubbing each of these candidates Knights of the Valiant and Magnanimous Order of the Temple. Em. McStay thanked each member of the class for the privilege of knighting and also thanked our Commander, Sir Knight Reid, for the special honor conferred upon him.

Commandery closed at 10:30 P.M.

Balloting

The Commandery was notified that reports of investigating committees on the petitions of Companions Powell H. Humphries, Arthur R. Nickerson, George M. Poor and Charles P. Sevoyan were full and favorable. These Companions were balloted upon and elected to receive the Orders in Boston Commandery.

Recess

This being our Official Inspection, a recess was taken at 4:46 P.M.

Full Form Opening

The Commandery was opened in full form at 5:00 P.M. and work on the Order of the Temple was exemplified on Sir Knight Gordon B. MacNevin, who acted as candidate. The work of the Order of the Temple was carried on to the completion of the Fourth Libation, when recess was taken for dinner at 6:55 P.M.

Dinner

Our Sir Knights and guests repaired to the banquet hall for a buffet dinner.

Reconvened

Commandery reconvened at 8:00 P.M. and the lines were formed for the Reception of our Inspecting Officer

Em. Sir Alfred C. Blake, Grand Senior Warden and Commander of the First Division, accompanied by his Deputy Grand Warden, Em. Sir Herman C. McStay, and his official suite of 51, including Right Em. Sir Kenneth H. Earle, Grand Commander, Right Eminent Sirs Frank H. Wilson, George A. Weeks and Harrie M. Taft, Past Grand Commanders. The official count was followed by

Inspection and Review

After which, Commander Reid resumed his station and concluded the work on the Order of the Temple. Our Division Commander then assumed the head of the Commandery and complimented our officers and guards upon their work, and announced the mark as ten mims. Following remarks by our Grand Commander Right Eminent Sir Kenneth H. Earle, Commander Reid presented our Division Commander and his Deputy Grand Warden with the traditional gifts from Boston Commandery, after which Em. Sir Blake retired with his suite, and Commandery closed with devotions at 10:00 P.M.

Refreshments and a social hour were enjoyed by all in the banquet hall.

A Special Meeting of Boston Commandery was opened at 6:30 A.M. by Eminent Sir John Reid for the purpose of acting as escort for the Fifth Annual Protestant Layman's Communion and Breakfast.

Although it was an unearthly hour for Protestants to be about, forty-four hardy Sir Knights turned out in uniform to escort over five thousand men from Copley Square to Mechanics Building. A dozen more joined our group at the new Old South Church for Communion.

After breakfast at Mechanics Building, we had the pleasure of listening to a very excellent address by Nathan M. Pusey, D.D., President of Harvard University.

The Sir Knights returned to the Asylum and were dismissed at 9:45 A.M.

Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.
Thy love divine hath led us in the past,
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast,
Be Thou our Ruler, Guardian, Guide, and Stay,
Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.
From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
By Thy strong arm our ever sure defence;
Thy true religion in our hearts increase,
Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace,
Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine.

ALL HAIL THE POWER

All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him lord of all!
Crown Him ye martyrs of our God,
Who from His altar call;
Praise Him whose way of pain ye trod,
And Crown Him lord of all!
Hail Him, the Heir of David's line,
Whom David Lord did call;
The God incarnate, man divine,
And crown Him lord of all!
Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him lord of all!

Dinner

A recess was taken for dinner at 6:45 P.M. Following dinner and entertainment, Commandery reconvened at 8:30 P.M.

Election

The report of the Nominating Committee was read by the Chairman Rt.Em. Sir Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr. Motion was made to accept report and proceed with the election. Em. Sir John Reid appointed Em. Sir Alfred C. Blake to preside during the election. The following slate was the selection of the Nominating Committee:

- (73) For Commander John Reid
- (73) For Generalissimo Charles D. Harrington
- (73) For Captain General Francis R. Heilignmann
- (66) For Senior Warden Howard L. MacOdrum
- (72) For Junior Warden George Locus
- (70) For Prelate Reverend Charles E. Pedersen
- (71) For Treasurer Frank B. Ellis
- For Recorder Harold A. Budreau
- For Trustee of Permanent Fund for 3 years,
Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr.
- For Trustee of Permanent Fund to fill unexpired term,
James C. Bayley

Eminent Sir Blake appointed two groups of tellers. Ballots were distributed and Em. Sir John Reid was unanimously re-elected to preside over Boston Commandery for the year 1955-56. A committee of Past Commanders were delegated to retire and escort Sir Knight Reid to the Asylum where he was notified of his re-election and accepted with thanks. The following officers were then elected without opposition:

Charles D. Harrington, Generalissimo
Francis R. Heilignann, Captain General
Howard L. MacOdrum, Senior Warden
George Locus, Junior Warden
Reverend Charles E. Pedersen, Prelate
Frank B. Ellis, Treasurer

Em. Sir Harold A. Budreau then declined the nomination for Recorder and nominated Rt. Em. Sir Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr. for this position. Rt. Em. Sir Wilson was elected unanimously to serve as Recorder. Em. Sir Budreau was then nominated and unanimously elected as trustee of the Funds of Boston Commandery, and Em. Sir James C. Bayley was elected to fill the unexpired term of our late Past Commander Elmer C. Page

Commander Reid announced all appointive officers were re-appointed with one exception, Sir Knight Robert S. Andrews was appointed Warden. Sir Knight Morton D. Durning was unanimously elected Prelate Emeritus; Em. Sir Harold A. Budreau was unanimously elected Recorder Emeritus.

Right Eminent Sir Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr., assisted by Eminent Sir Frank B. Ellis as Grand Warden, then installed each officer elective and appointive to their respective positions. Eminent Sir Harold A. Budreau installed Rt. Em. Sir Wilson as Recorder, after which Em. Sir Ellis made the official announcement and declared all officers elected and chosen properly installed in their respective offices.

Rt. Em. Sir Wilson spoke on the splendid attendance and fine appearance of our Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island in the parade of the Triennial Meeting of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templars of the U.S.A., held at New York, N. Y., in August 1955, and suggested that special mention be made in our records of the 25 valiant Knights of Boston Commandery who participated in the parade.

Em. Sir John Reid announced that Mrs. Elmer G. Page had presented the jewel and sword of her husband, our late and revered Past Commander, to Boston Commandery, and it was voted to accept Mrs. Page's gracious gift, and that our Recorder be instructed to convey to her the thanks of Boston Commandery for her thoughtfulness.

There being no further business, the Commandery closed with devotions at 9:45 P.M.

A regular Stated Conclave of Boston Commandery of Knights Templar was opened by Eminent Commander John Reid at 5.45 P.M. on Wednesday, October 19, 1955 in Gothic Hall, being transferred by direction of the Grand Master from our scheduled meeting place in Ionic Hall, Masonic Temple, Boston.

Following devotions, the minutes of the 154'th Annual Conclave were read and approved.

For the Orders, the applications of Arthur J. Hansen, George C. Sackley, and Glenn M. Hathaway, were presented. Reports on the same being favorable, these Companions, together with William K. Freeze, were duly elected.

The Eminent Commander announced the death of Sir Knight Alexander Bender of 67 Payson Road, Belmont, on October 17, 1955 and the customary tribute was paid. Sir Knight Bender, born October 3, 1867, and a member of Belmont Lodge and Belmont Chapter, was knighted in Boston Commandery on May 21, 1924. It was announced that his funeral services would be held at 1 P.M. on October 20, at the University Lutheran Church in Cambridge.

Em. Sir Herman C. McStay moved that the sum of $250 from the General Fund available from this past year, be set aside towards the Alfred Blake Fund, to be later expended in suitable recognition of the expected elevation of Eminent Sir Blake as Grand Commander within a few years. The motion was passed unanimously.

At 6.15 P.M. the business of the Commandery was declared suspended and a Council of the Red Cross was opened by the Eminent Commander, who thereupon announced that the Order of the Red Cross in full dramatic form would be under the able direction of Sir Knight Charles D. Harrington the Generalissimo.

Recess for dinner was then declared, at which there was an attendance of 152, including 26 guests of the Commandery. Advance returns numbered but 84.

At 8.20 P.M., following entertainment in the Banquet Hall, the Sir Knights re-assembled in Gothic Hall to witness exemplification of the Order of the Red Cross on Percival B. Daye, John N. Garabedian, Cecil E. Hall, Edwin W. Robinson, and James L. Richards. The part of the Sovereign Master was portrayed by Em. Sir James S. W. Rogers in his usual effective manner, Excellent High Priest by Rev. Sir Charles E. Pedersen, and Zerubbabel by Em Sir James C. Bayley in substitution for the scheduled appearance of Sir Knight E. Wayne Donaldson.

Met Gardner William - Valinda.

On completion of the Order of the Red Cross, the Order of Malta was thereupon conferred under the direction of our Past Eminent Commander William M. Heiligmann on the above five eligible candidates.

After the customary devotions, the Commandery was closed in short form.

A regular Stated Conclave of Boston Commandery of Knights Templar was opened by the Eminent Commander at 6.15 P.M. on Wednesday, November 16, 1955, in Ionic Hall.

Following devotions, the minutes of the October 19, 1955 meeting were read and approved.

For the Orders, the applications of Tudor Jones, Cecil P. Murray, and Richard Robinson, as borne on the notice were favorably acted upon, together with the application of Frank C. Blenkhorn, Sarkis Boghosian Jr., Roland C. Clement, Joseph Pawl, Chris George Georgakles, George C. Georgakles, Arthur C. Georgakles, and William G. Richardson. Applications not on notice were acted upon by virtue of Special Dispensation dated November 15, 1955 received from the Right Eminent Grand Commander, and filed herewith.

On motion of Em. Sir Frank B. Ells it was voted that an Advisory Committee of three, with Sir Knights Eugene Carver, Anthony O. Shallna, and Right Eminent Sir Robert Gardiner Wilson Jr., suggested as members, be appointed to consult and act in an advisory capacity with the Trustees of the Permanent Fund on the matter of investments. The Eminent Commander made the suggested appointments.

The business of the Commandery was thereupon declared suspended and a Council of the Red Cross was opened by the Eminent Commander. Recess was declared for dinner, at which there were present 142, including 40 guests, together with 32 Sir Knights of De Molay Commandery. Advance returns numbered 63.

Following dinner and entertainment, a Council of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross was re-convened under the direction of our Generalissimo, Sir Knight Charles D. Harrington. Eminent Sir James S. W. Rogers portrayed the Sovereign Master, Sir Knight Charles E. Pedersen the Excellent High Priest, and Sir Knight E. Wayne Donaldson appeared as Zerubbabel. The candidates were Companions Tudor Jones, Cecil P. Murray, Frank C. Blenkhorn, Sarkis Boghosian Jr., Arthur Julius Hansen, James Oliphant Munn, George C. Sackley, Glenn M. Hathaway, William Knight Freeze, Richard Robinson, Roland Charles Clement, Chris G. Georgakles, George C. Georgakles, Joseph Pawl, and William Richardson. The following additional three candidates were worked as a Knightly courtesy for Temple Commandery, Companion Norwood George Darling; for Cyprus Commandery Companion George Dowling; and for Gethsemane Commandery Companion Arthur C. Douglas.

The work of a Council of the Illustrious Red Cross being completed with the usual Boston Commandery splendid rendition, the Order of Malta was thereupon conferred under the direction of Past Commander William M. Heiligmann on the above 19 candidates.

Right Eminent Sir Robert Gardiner Wilson Jr. - Minutes

After the customary devotions, the Commandery was closed in short form.

A Special Conclave of Boston Commandery of Knights Templar was opened by the Eminent Commander at 5 P.M. on Wednesday December 7, 1955. All officers were present except the Captain General.

Following devotions, favorable ballot was had on application for the Orders filed by Gordon S. Borek, and for reinstatement of Isaac Hodgen Jr., originally knighted in William Parkman Commandery on August 10, 1916. Release on Gordon S. Borek was read from Winslow Lewis Commandery of Salem, dated November 28, 1955, and Dispensation from the Right Eminent Grand Commander to receive and ballot upon Petitions for the Orders.

Work was begun on the Order of the Temple on Frank C. Blenkhorn, Sarkis Boghosian Jr., Roland C. Clement, William K. Freeze, Chris G. Georgakles, George C. Georgakles, Arthur J. Hansen, Glenn M. Hathaway, Tudor Jones, James O. Munn, Cecil P. Murray, Joseph Pawl, William J. Richardson, Richard I. Robinson, George C. Sackley, James L. Richards, Cecil E. Hall, John Garabedian, and Edwin W. Robinson, a total of 19, and also as a Knightly courtesy, Ola B. Vikre Jr. for De Molay Commandery.

The Order of the Temple was completed following dinner and a brief entertainment, and the above 20 Sir Knights were duly knighted.

As a matter of record it may be stated that on Thursday, December 1, 1955, the 12'th Annual Theatre Party of Boston Commandery was held at New England Mutual Hall under the direction of Eminent Sir James C. Bayley as Chairman. The Milton Players gave a splendid presentation of "Jane", prior to which Eminent Commander John Reid made suitable introductory remarks of welcome, and introduced Right Eminent Sir R. G. Wilson Jr. who presented all elective officers of Boston Commandery, as well as Past Commanders present, together with the following distinguished guests: the Right Eminent Grand Commander Mortimer W. A regular Stated Conclave of Boston Commandery of Knights Templar was opened by the Eminent Commander at 5.30 P.M. on Wednesday, December 21, 1955, in Boston Commandery's Armory, as a business meeting only. Officers present were the Eminent Commander, Treasurer, Recorder, and Warder.

The reading of the minutes of our preceding Conclave was waived.

On motion of the Treasurer it was voted that a Committee of Sir Knights, consisting of the Eminent Commander, Treasurer, and Recorder, be directed to remove and re-allocate the first two sections of lockers at the west end of the Armory to more suitable and convenient locations nearer the east end.

The Eminent Commander acknowledged a most generous response to our annual Templar Christmas appeal, and reported personal Yuletide visits by our Commander and Generalissimo on Sunday, December 18, continuously between 12.30 and 9 P.M., bringing greetings of the season to scores of our Sir Knights.

The Conclave was closed in short form at 6 P.M.
